INTRODUCTION TO ALL COUNTS

At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment,
unless otherwise indicated:

The New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development

1. The New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") was a municipal public agency created under Chapter 42 of the New York City Charter and regulated under Title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York (the "NYC Rules") to provide affordable housing to the residents of New York City.

2. As the largest municipal provider of affordable housing in the country, HPD's purpose was to provide affordable housing in various forms to the residents of New York City. HPD ran a number of programs that were intended to develop affordable housing, including, among others: (1) the Neighborhood Entrepreneurs Program ("NEP"), which was intended to enable neighborhood-based private property managers to manage and own clusters of occupied and vacant New York City-owned buildings as affordable housing; (2) the Neighborhood Redevelopment Program ("NRP"), whereby HPD conveyed clusters of occupied and vacant New York City-owned buildings to designated not-for-profit organizations for rehabilitation and operation as affordable rental housing; and (3) the Neighborhood Homes Program and the HomeWorks Program, which were intended to rehabilitate residential buildings for eventual sale to eligible purchasers. Pursuant to Title 28 of the NYC Rules, HPD was charged with selecting real estate developers, or "sponsors," to develop NEP and NRP projects. The NYC Rules provided that "HPD may select a Sponsor for a Project by any method which HPD determines will best further the purposes of the Program, including, without limitation, pursuant to a request for qualifications process, pursuant to a request for proposals process, selection from a pre-qualified list or, in the discretion of HPD, by a direct designation of an entity judged by HPD to be suitable for the task."

3. After HPD selected a developer for a particular project, HPD and the developer selected a general contractor responsible for the construction, rehabilitation and renovation of the properties involved in that project.

4. HPD engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate and foreign commerce, and as a legal entity, it constituted an "enterprise" as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4). HPD operated throughout New York City, including within the Eastern District of New York.

The Defendants and Other Individuals

5. At various times, the defendant STEVENSON DUNN was associated with HPD as a real estate developer involved in various HPD projects.

6. At various times, the defendants LEE HYMOWITZ and MICHAEL FREEMAN were business partners with the defendant STEVENSON DUNN in corporate entities, including, among others, SML Development LLC, Lexington Avenue LP, SML Bed Stuy Development, LLC, and Hancock Street SML LLC (collectively, the "SML Entities"), which were selected as real estate developers for one or more HPD projects. HYMOWITZ and FREEMAN were also partners in a law firm, Hymowitz & Freeman.

7. At various times, John Doe #1, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a general contractor and real estate developer who was awarded work on HPD projects.

8. At various times, John Doe #2, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was a general contractor and real estate developer who was awarded work on HPD projects.

9. At various times, John Doe #3, an individual whose identity is known to the Grand Jury, was employed by HPD in various executive positions. John Doe #3's employment at HPD qualified him as a "public servant" as defined by New York Penal Law Section 10.00(15).

The Criminal Schemes

10. In or about and between January 2005 and October 2011, both dates being approximate and inclusive, the defendants STEVENSON DUNN, LEE HYMOWITZ and MICHAEL FREEMAN, together with others, solicited and received kickback payments from John Doe #1 in connection with the award of general contracting and real estate development work with the SML Entities on HPD projects. DUNN, HYMOWITZ and FREEMAN included and caused to be included the amount of money they received in the form of kickback payments from John Doe #1 in requisitions for payment they submitted to HPD and to other parties participating in HPD projects, such as the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") and various private lenders (together, "HPD and its partners"), thereby passing on the costs of their own corrupt activity to HPD and its partners. To further conceal the true nature of these kickback payments, DUNN, HYMOWITZ and FREEMAN provided John Doe #1 with a sham retainer agreement for Hymowitz & Freeman's legal services and provided John Doe #1 with false and inflated invoices for services and supplies from, among others, 334 Marcus Garvey Boulevard Corporation.

11. Similarly, in or about and between January 2005 and October 2011, both dates being approximate and inclusive, the defendant STEVENSON DUNN together with others, solicited and received kickback payments from John Doe #2 in connection with the award of general contracting and real estate development work with the SML Entities on HPD projects. DUNN included and caused to be included the amount of money he received in the form of kickback payments from John Doe #2 in requisitions for payment that he, together with others, submitted to HPD and its partners. To further conceal the true nature of these kickback payments, DUNN provided John Doe #2 with inflated invoices for services and supplies from, among others, 334 Marcus Garvey Boulevard Corporation. In addition, when John Doe #2 failed to pay some of the kickback payments demanded by DUNN, DUNN threatened John Doe #2 and his family with force, violence and fear. Moreover, in or about and between 2007 and 2008, DUNN made a cash bribe payment to John Doe #3.
